

Agreement
Between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of Nicaragua
Regarding the Surrender of Persons to the International Criminal Court

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of Nicaragua, hereinafter "the Parties,"

Reaffirming the importance of bringing to justice those who commit genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes,

Confirming that nothing in this agreement provides impunity with regard to genocide, crimes against humanity and war crimes,

Recalling that the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court done at Rome on July 17, 1998 by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court is intended to complement and not supplant national criminal jurisdiction,

Considering that the Parties have each expressed their intention to investigate and to prosecute where appropriate acts within the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court alleged to have been committed by their officials, employees, military personnel or other nationals,

Bearing in mind Article 98 of the Rome Statute,

Hereby agree as follows:

1. For purposes of this Agreement, "persons" of either Party include all nationals of that Party and, for the Government of the United States, also include current and former non-U.S. national U.S. military personnel with respect to acts or omissions allegedly committed or occurring while they are or were U.S. military personnel.

2. Persons of one Party present in the territory of the other shall not, absent the express consent of the first Party,

(a) be surrendered or transferred by any means to the International Criminal Court for any purpose, or

(b) be surrendered or transferred by any means to any other entity or third country, or expelled to a third country, for the purpose of surrender to or transfer to the International Criminal Court.

3. When the United States extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a person of Nicaragua to a third country, the United States will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by the third country, absent the express consent of the Government of Nicaragua.

4. When the Government of Nicaragua extradites, surrenders, or otherwise transfers a person of the United States of America to a third country, the Government of Nicaragua will not agree to the surrender or transfer of that person to the International Criminal Court by the third country, absent the express consent of the Government of the United States.

5. Each Party agrees, subject to its international legal obligations, not to knowingly facilitate, consent to, or cooperate with efforts by any third party or country to effect the extradition, surrender, or transfer of a person of the other Party to the International Criminal Court.

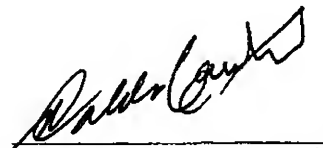

6. This Agreement shall enter into force upon an exchange of notes confirming that each Party has completed the necessary domestic legal requirements to bring the Agreement into force. It will remain in force until one year after the date on which one Party notifies the other of its intent to terminate this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement shall continue to apply with respect to any act occurring, or any allegation arising, before the effective date of termination.

Done at Managua, Nicaragua, this 4th day of June, 2003, in the English and Spanish languages. In case of differences in interpretation, the English language text shall prevail.

For the Government of the United States of America

For the Government of the Republic of Nicaragua

Barbara C. Moore
Ambassador

Norman Caldera Cardenal
Minister of Foreign Affairs